

The University of Memphis
Intermodal Freight Transportation Institute
2nd Annual Intermodal Conference
September 29, 2008
FedEx Institute

Moving Beyond First Response

—AGENDA—

7:30 – 8:00	Registration, Coffee
8:00 – 8:15	Welcome Dr. Martin Lipinski, the University of Memphis
8:15 – 8:45	Memphis' Role in the Global/National Transportation Picture – The Importance of our Infrastructure Joe Waldo – Global Insight
8:45 – 9:15	The Homeland Security Perspective – Critical Infrastructure Protection and Disaster Recovery Robert D. Jamison, Under Secretary, National Protection & Programs Directorate, US Department of Homeland Security
9:15 – 9:35	The Local Perspective – Community Recovery and Business Continuity Planning Rick Bowker, Mid-South Association of Contingency Planners
9:35 – 9:55	The Regional Perspective Bob Nations, Shelby County Department of Homeland Security
9:55 – 10:15	Break
10:15 – 11:45	Private and Public Sector Response – Critical Disaster Recovery Issues –Short and Long Term Barge Representative – Scott Noble, Ingram Barge Rail Representative – Danny Simpson, CN Railway Highways/Trucking Representative – Dan Pallme, Comtrak Air Representative – Steve Liberto, FedEx
11:45 – Noon	Summary and Presentation
Noon – 1 pm	Luncheon Remarks:

“The Role of the Federal Government”
Congressman Steve Cohen
“The Role of State Government”
Senator Mark Norris